Property description

The construction area Martinsbrugg is an attractive commercial and industrial area in the city of St.Gallen and, thanks to its proximity to the highway, is logistically well-connected to your employees. Here, a high-quality commercial development is being built on the largest building land reserve for economic use in the eastern part of the city.

There is great potential for high-quality, dynamic companies with sustainable added value. With its integration into the existing industry, it has an ideal offer especially for companies in the field of ICT, medtech, production technology or mechatronics.
