

Health @ St.GallenBodenseeArea

Everything from research to implementation in a single location

More for Less

- Most efficient economy in the heart of Europe
- Most effective data & IP protection worldwide
- Europe's most liberal labor market
- Highest skilled and educated ICT talents

Major Industries

- Orthopedic and electronic medtech
- Phytopharma
- Photonics and micr-electronics

Education & Research

- University of St.Gallen HSG
- University of Applied Sciences Rapperswil HSR
- University of Applied Sciences St.Gallen FHS
- Cantonal Main Hospital
- Empa St.Gallen (Material Sciences and Technology)

Professional Networks & Associations

- Fasmед
- Swissmem
- St.Gallen Oncology Conferences
- Innosuisse

St.Gallen
Bodensee
Area

www.sgba.ch
+41 (0)58 229 64 64

Stuttgart

Munich

D

Frauenfeld

St.Gallen

Zurich

FL

AT

CH

I

Phytopharma

- Strong local sector with a long tradition and global annual revenue of approx. CHF 200 millions.

Medtech

- More than 160 mostly SME companies with international sales and market presence, and close professional ties to the local precision technology sector.

Empa - Materials Sciences & Technology

- Interdisciplinary Swiss Federal Laboratories for Materials Sciences and Technology.
- Nanomaterials for biotech and medtech.

Strong value creation

- Approximately CHF 5.3 billions, or 10% of total economic output, are generated annually in the SGBA's health sector.

Complete value chain

- Within the health sector, the SGBA is home to global market leaders in education, talent & skills, research & development, manufacturing & packaging, global trade, safety & quality management, as well as client services & applications.

Company satisfaction

- High quality standards, precision and innovative potential, easy access to and retention of top talent, as well as a central location in the heart of Europe are the most important benefits of the SGBA's health industry cluster.

2 hours

>15 million population

GDP >CHF 800 billion

int. trade volume >CHF 30 billion

Health @ St.GallenBodenseeArea

leading local companies in the health sector

- Global market leader of electronic precision eye surgery devices and instruments
- Cataract treatment, vitrectomy and glaucoma surgery

- Leading global provider of laboratory technology solutions for research & development, quality management and production

Materials Science and Technology

- Interdisciplinary Swiss Federal Laboratories for Materials Sciences and Technology, research institution within the ETH group
- Smart materials and surface research

- Worldleading outstanding 5-star luxury resort hotel with on-site interdisciplinary medical center and rehabilitation clinic
- Diagnostics, prevention, therapy and rehabilitation

- Leading manufacturer of consumables and small-size devices for dentists and dental laboratories
- Sales operations in EMEA, Americas, along with China and India

- Manufacturing of prostheses, orthoses, sterilization products and compression hosiery
- Integrated equipment and facilities of operating rooms and inpatient areas

- Internationally renowned center for clinical research in oncology
- Vascular surgery, angiology, radiology, cardiology and center for muscular/ALS research

- Development, production and sales of evidence-based herbal pharmaceuticals
- 15% of revenues are reinvested in R&D and quality control
- Market presence in more than 20 countries

- High-precision injection molding specialist for pharmaceutical packages, for medications with safety components
- Drug delivery systems for international companies

- Global quality leader in manufacturing of video endoscopes, borescopes and flexoscopes
- Second-largest endoscope manufacturer worldwide

- Leading manufacturer of high precision instruments in chemical analytics
- Complete value chain at the St.GallenBodenseeArea headquarters

- World-famous A.Vogel product line
- Natural pharmaceuticals and medicines made from freshly harvested plants
- Food products and dietary supplements
- Annual revenue of CHF <110 million